New Chair of the DICO Board of Directors

Mr. Paul Mullins, BA, LL.B

The Deposit Insurance Corporation of Ontario (DICO) is pleased to announce that Mr. Paul Mullins, BA, LL.B has been appointed Chair of the Board of Directors of the Deposit Insurance Corporation of Ontario (DICO) by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council effective May 4, 2011.

Mr. Mullins has been a member of DICO's Board since 2004, Chair of the Governance and Human Resources Committee since 2007, and Vice-Chair since 2009.

Paul Mullins is a lawyer who has had his own practice in Windsor and Essex County since 1971.

He was a commissioner for the Federal Human Rights Tribunal.

He served for 20 years as a Director and/or President of Windsor Homes Coalition which provides low income housing to needy families.

For over 24 years Mr. Mullins served as a Director and/or Chair of the Board of United Communities Credit Union (formerly Woodslee Credit Union) which has 36,000 members and assets of over $620 million.

Mr. Mullins has also served on numerous community and church groups in his hometown of Woodslee, Ontario, over the years.

Please join us in congratulating Mr. Paul Mullins on his appointment and wishing him continued success in leading our board.

Mr. Mullins succeeds Ms. Laura Talbot who has led the Board since 2009.

The Minister of Finance, Board members and staff at DICO would like to thank Laura for her leadership and dedication to DICO and the Credit Union and Caisse Populaire sector.
