Barry Brydges Retires

It is with mixed emotions that I wish to advise everyone that Barry Brydges, Vice President of Insurance & Risk Management, has decided to retire from DICO at the end of June.

Barry is one of the longest serving members of our team and has been with us for 24 years. His contributions to the organization are many and varied. Barry has personally managed a large number of difficult and sensitive situations always ensuring that all depositors were protected. Above all, he has been an exceptional employee, manager and leader within DICO and the credit union movement.

Barry joined the Ontario Share and Deposit Insurance Corporation (OSDIC) in 1987 as a Manager in the Depositor Protection Services from Scotiabank. He travelled to every small town in Ontario during the early years.

In the 1990s after the Credit Unions and Caisses Populaires Act was revised to make DICO the stabilization authority for the sector, Barry took on the responsibility for this new area.

The stabilization program was very successful and many credit unions that are still doing well today are graduates of the Supervision program.

After the merger of the Stabilization Services Division with the Insurance Division, Barry took on the responsibility of Vice President of Insurance & Risk Management and has been in that position for the past 7 years.

On behalf of the board and staff of DICO, I want to sincerely thank Barry for his many contributions to DICO and the Ontario Credit Union and Caisse Populaire sector. He will be missed.

Please join us in wishing Barry many happy years of retirement.

Andy Poprawa
CEO
