New Chair of the DICO Board of Directors

Ms. Laura Talbot

The Deposit Insurance Corporation of Ontario (DICO) is pleased to announce that Ms. Laura Talbot (MBA, CMA, FCMA, ICD.D) has been appointed Chair of the DICO Board of Directors by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council effective March 22, 2009.

Ms. Talbot has been a member of DICO's Board since 2002 as Chair of the Audit and Finance Committee, and Vice-Chair since 2006.

Laura Talbot is President of the TalbotAllan Consulting Group. Previously she held senior executive roles with University of Waterloo, the Federal government, the Canadian Red Cross, several utilities and US Bank One.

She has substantial governance experience, currently on the Boards and Committees of the: Canadian Accounting Standards Oversight Council; Canadian Partnership Against Cancer; Canadian Food Inspection Agency; Ontario Health Quality Council; Desjardins Sécurité financière – assurance vie; SMAC Pension Committee; Fellows FCMA Council of Québec; and a life member of Financial Executives International (Canada).

She was previously Vice-Chair of the CS COOP Board (now Alterna) and Chair of the Society of Management Accountants of Canada, amongst others.

Please join us in congratulating Laura Talbot on her appointment and wishing her continued success in leading our board.

Ms. Talbot succeeds Mr. David Yule who has led the Board since 2006.

The Minister of Finance, Board members and staff at DICO would like to thank David for his leadership and dedication to DICO and the Credit Union and Caisse Populaire sector.
